The Court has considered the parties’ stipulations re scheduling order.

IT IS ORDERED the Stipulation (Doc. 132) is DENIED AS MOOT.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED the Stipulation (Doc. 182) is GRANTED.

The parties shall comply with the following schedule.

A. All proceedings concerning this case shall be in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

B. All Initial Disclosures as defined in FRCP 26(a)(1) were due no later than August 6, 2013.

C. To satisfy the requirements of FRCP 26(a)(1), the parties shall file with the Clerk of the Court a Notice of Initial Disclosure, rather than copies of the actual disclosures.

1 D. Procedural motions including Motions to Amend the Complaint or Answer,
2 and Motions to Join Additional Parties were due no later than August 5, 2013.

3 E. The Plaintiffs were required to disclose the identity of all persons who may 4 be used at trial to present evidence under Federal Rules of Evidence (FRE) 701, 702, 703, 5 704 and 705 no later than August 16, 2013. The Defendants were required to disclose the 6 identity of all persons who may be used at trial to present evidence under FRE 701, 702, 7 703, 704 or 705 no later than August 23, 2013. To the extent that either party intends to 8 call any persons for rebuttal purposes who will present evidence under Federal Rules of 9 Evidence (FRE) 701, 702, 703, 704 and 705, the disclosures provided for hereunder were 10 required to be made not later than August 30, 2013. No deposition of any expert witness
11 shall occur before the disclosures concerning expert witnesses mandated by this Order
12 have been made. The disclosures of the identities of all persons who may be used at trial 13 to present evidence under FRE 701, 702, 703, 704 or 705 shall also include all of the 14 disclosures required by FRCP 26(a)(2)(B) if the witness is either (1) retained or 15 specifically employed to provide expert testimony in the case, or (2) is an agent or 16 employee of the party offering the testimony whose duties regularly involve giving expert 17 testimony.¹

18
19 F. All discovery, including answers to interrogatories, production of 20 documents, depositions, and requests to admit, shall be completed by September 30,
21 2013. The parties agree that responses to written discovery requests shall be served not 22 later than 15 days after service, except in the case of disputed discovery requests, in 23 which case responses shall be served not later than 15 days after the dispute is resolved
24 by the parties or the Court. The parties agree that they shall notify the requesting party of 25 any dispute or objection to a discovery request not later than three (3) business days
26

27 ¹ The parties are on notice that this Order requires disclosure different than that 28 required by FRCP 26(a)(2).

1 following receipt of the request. In the event the parties are unable to resolve any such 2 dispute the objecting party shall invoke the process provided for in ¶J hereunder not more 3 than three business days after first notification to the other party of the objection or 4 dispute. The objecting party shall serve its response to such a discovery request to the 5 extent provided by the Court's Order addressing the dispute within five (5) days of the 6 filing of such Order. The parties shall serve all discovery requests by email on all counsel 7 appearing herein.

8 G. The parties shall finally supplement responses to all discovery including 9 material changes in expert witness opinions and material disclosures relating to the 10 witnesses on or before October 2, 2013. The parties agree that FRCP 26(a)(3)
11 disclosures are not required in this matter given the current trial date of October 22-23, 12 2013.

13 H. Discovery by interrogatory shall be governed by the national uniform 14 requirements set forth in FRCP 33, except as amended herein.

15 I. Depositions shall be limited by the national uniform requirements set forth
16 in Rules 30, 31 and 32 of the FRCP, except as amended herein, except that USAPA's 17 limit on the total number of depositions shall not include the depositions of the named 18 Plaintiffs, which depositions shall not exceed 3 hours in length for each deposition.

19 J. Motions on discovery matters are prohibited. Should a discovery dispute 20 arise Counsel shall consult and make a sincere effort to resolve the matter(s). If the 21 parties cannot reach a resolution, they are directed to jointly file and fax (602) 322-7529, 22 a joint statement of the issue(s), limited to one page per issue. Upon review of the 23 statement an Order will issue regarding further action required by the parties. This 24 procedure differs from the procedure set forth in Local Rule 7.2(j). The parties shall also 25 consult the Court's Standing Order concerning discovery disputes to ensure full 26 compliance with the Court's discovery dispute procedures, some of which are not 27
28

1 included here. The Standing Order is available on the District of Arizona website:

4 K. This Order contemplates that each party will conduct discovery to permit
5 completion within the deadline. Any discovery which results in insufficient time to 6 undertake unnecessary additional discovery and which requires an extension of the 7 discovery deadline will be met with disfavor, will only be granted for good cause or only 8 to prevent manifest injustice pursuant to FRCP 16(b) and (e), and may result in denial of 9 an extension, exclusion of evidence, or the imposition of other serious sanctions pursuant 10 to FRCP 37(b),(c),(d).

11 L. All dispositive motions shall be filed no later than October 11, 2013.
12 Unless permitted by Order of the Court, only one dispositive motion is allowed to be filed 13 by each party. If dispositive motions have been filed neither party shall request that the 14 Court make any change in date of trial or other dates provided for herein.

15 M. All parties are specifically admonished that pursuant to LRCiv 7.2(i), “[i]f a 16 motion does not conform in all substantial respects with the requirements of this Rule, or 17 if the opposing party does not serve and file the required answering memoranda, or 18 if counsel for any party fails to appear the time and place for oral argument, such 19 noncompliance may be deemed a consent to the denial or granting of the motion and 20 the Court may dispose of the motion summarily.”

21 N. A Joint Statement of Undisputed Facts, Joint Statement of the Case,
22 Independent Statements of Disputed Facts and the Joint Proposed Pretrial Order
23 shall be lodged and filed by October 9, 2013, with parties to exchange initial drafts on or 24 before October 1, 2013. Any and all Motions in Limine shall be lodged and filed not 25 later than October 11, 2013. Responses to such motions in limine shall be served within 26 five (5) days of filing, and no replies are permitted unless specifically ordered by the 27
28

1 Court. Because this is a bench trial, only those motions in limine that might result in a 2 substantial saving of time or effort during trial should be filed. Motions in limine that do
3 not qualify as such will be summarily denied. The content of the Joint Proposed Pretrial
4 Order is that prescribed in the Court's form of Joint Proposed Pretrial Order. [See Court's 5 website: www.azd.uscourts.gov under "Judges and Courtrooms/Orders, Forms & 6 Procedures").

7 O. In addition to filing a Joint Proposed Pretrial Order, each party shall file
8 Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law no later than October 14, 2013.

9 P. The attorneys who will be trying the case for each of the parties shall 10 appear at the Final Pretrial Conference that will be scheduled as promptly as possible 11 after the filing of the Joint Proposed Pretrial Order. The attorneys appearing at the 12 conference shall be prepared to address the merits of all issues raised in the Joint 13 Proposed Pretrial Order.
14

15 Q. Any other final pretrial matters required pursuant to FRCP 26(a)(3) are due 16 in accordance with this Order prior to the preparation and filing of the Joint Proposed 17 Pretrial Order.

18 This Court views compliance with the provisions of this Order as critical to its 19 case management responsibilities and the responsibilities of the parties under FRCP 1.

20 Dated this 18th day of September, 2013.
