Before: TASHIMA, GRABER, and BYBEE, Circuit Judges.

Plaintiffs and Defendant US Airline Pilots Association are ordered to file concurrent supplemental briefs addressing the following issues:

1. Whether the appeal and cross-appeals from the district court's decision regarding the McCaskill-Bond issues have become moot, and shall include their respective responses to US Airways' Rule 28(j) letter, filed February 26, 2015.

2. Whether an arbitration decision establishing a single pilots' seniority regime would cause Plaintiffs' duty of fair representation claim to become moot, and shall include in their respective briefs the current status of the pilots' seniority integration process. US Airways may, at its option, file a supplemental brief addressing the issue set forth in this Paragraph 2.

Said supplemental briefs shall not exceed ten pages, or 2500 words, in length and shall be filed within 14 days of the filed date of this order.
